- c) The Management shall place Compliance Certificate at every quarterly Board Meeting, which provides confirmation that all the laws applicable to the company have been complied with.
- d) Connected Lending Relationships: While the Company does not envisage making loans to any connected parties, it shall comply with the RBI Instructions on lending to Directors, their relatives or Directors of other Companies and their relatives and other entities as & when notified.

DMI will ensure that it collects information from the all the Directors individually, to the effect that he is a Director or a member of a specified body corporate or a firm and hence he is to be regarded as concerned or interested in or interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the notice, be entered into with that body corporate or firm. It will be ensured that such notice is renewed every financial year. The concerned Director will ensure that such general notice or renewal thereof is brought upon and read at the first meeting of the Board after it is given.

Corporate Governance Policy

In order to obviate conflict of interest in the lending operations of DMI, it will not grant any loan/non-fund-based facility to or invest in:

- (i) Its directors or their relatives
- (ii) to any firm in which any of its Directors is interested as Partner, Manager, Employee or Guarantor
- (iii) Any individual in respect of whom any of its Directors is a Guarantor.
- (iv) any company of which, or the subsidiary or the holding company of which, any of the Directors of the company is a Director, Managing Agent, Manager, Employee, or Guarantor or any firm in which they (said Directors of the company) hold substantial interest.

The above shall not constrain the Company's ability to grant normal business-related advances to its Directors and employees.

DMI shall submit information pertaining to loans and advances granted to its directors, relatives and other entities for each quarter end (i.e. as on 31st March; 30th June; 30th September and 31st December) to the Regional Office of the Department of Non-Banking Supervision within 15 days from the close of the respective quarter. If there is nothing to report, a NIL statement may be submitted. Such reporting shall be complied with as & when it is notified by RBI.

e) In addition to the above, DMI shall follow the following guidelines:

- (i) All the employees of DMI are obliged to carry out their duties in an honest, fair, diligent and ethical manner, within the scope of the authority conferred upon them and in accordance with the laws, rules, regulations, agreements, guidelines, standards and internal policies and procedures.

The Board of Directors of the Company is entrusted with the fiduciary responsibility of oversight of the affairs of the Company. As Directors of the Company, they have a duty to make decisions and implement policies in the best interest of the Company and its Stakeholders.

The Directors and Senior Management personnel are required to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty, ethical and legal conduct, when acting on behalf of the Company or in connection with the Company's business or operations and at social events. An honest conduct is considered as such when a conduct is free from fraud or deception. DMI considers ethical conduct to be confirming to the accepted professional standards of conduct and include ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interests between personal and professional relationships.
