1. Introduction

DMI Finance Private Limited (hereinafter referred as the “Company” or “DMI”) is registered as a Non-Deposit Taking Non-Banking Financial Company (‘NBFC’) and categorized as a NBFC – Middle Layer as per the Master Direction – Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Company – Scale Based Regulation) Directions, 2023 (as amended from time to time) (“Master Direction”) with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide NBFC Certificate of Registration No. N-14.03176.

In accordance with para 2 (A) (vi) of the RBI Master Circular on Fair Practices Code dated July 1, 2025 (as amended from time to time), DMI has formulated this Policy, hereinafter referred to as “Policy on Grievance Redressal Mechanism” (the “Policy”).

A Customer complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction from a customer, requiring a response, about business activities performed by the Company or its employees or performed on their behalf by any third party/service provider. Complaints escalated to grievance channels are termed as Grievance/escalations. Our Grievance Redressal Mechanism is designed to ensure that all customer complaints and concerns are addressed promptly and effectively. We encourage our customers to raise grievances through designated channels, and we commit to resolving issues within a specified timeframe. Our dedicated grievance redressal team will investigate each complaint thoroughly and provide feedback to the complainant. We aim to foster transparency and trust, ensuring that our clients feel heard and valued in their interactions with us.

2. Applicability

This Mechanism applies to all customers, stakeholders, and employees of the Company. It encompasses all services and products offered by the company, including but not limited to loans and ancillary products such as Insurance,. This Mechanism is intended for use in all customer interactions, including face-to-face communications, telephonic conversations, and electronic correspondences. Additionally, it applies to any thirdparty service providers engaged by the Company in delivering services to customers. All parties involved are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Mechanism to ensure effective communication and resolution of grievances.

3. Objective of the Mechanism

- (i) All customers are always treated fairly and without bias.
- (ii) All issues raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and resolved on time.
- (iii) Customers are made completely aware of their rights so that they can opt for alternative remedies, if they are not fully satisfied with our response or resolution to their complaint

This Mechanism is applicable to all customers of DMI and all the matters brought to the notice of DMI through its recognised correspondence and interaction channels. This excludes the cases which are sub-judice.

4. Key Parameters

Following are some of the key parameters of the Grievance Redressal Mechanism (“GRM”) adopted by the Company:

- (i) Resolution of customer complaints/ disputes/ queries within a prescribed time frame.
- (ii) Ensuring that all complaints/ disputes/ queries of customers are heard and disposed of at least at the next higher level.

- (iii) The Company shall take-up the complaint/ grievance promptly and resolve the matters expeditiously within a period of 30 days.
- (iv) If any complaint lodged by the customer against the Company is rejected wholly or partly, or the customer is not satisfied with the reply; or the customer has not received any reply within 30 days of receipt of complaint by the Company, the said customer can lodge a complaint over the Complaint Management System (CMS) portal or send a physical complaint to “Centralised Receipt and Processing Centre, 4th Floor, Reserve Bank of India, Sector-17, Central Vista, Chandigarh - 160017” as per the grievance redressal mechanism prescribed by RBI.
- (v) All communications shall be in vernacular language/ language understood by the borrower.

5. Overview of Customer Service

Customer interactions are categorized as under:

- i. Queries (Q) - Customer requirements which can be attended to and closed immediately, without requirement of further processing.
- ii. Requests (R) - Customer requirements which need further processing and are not in the nature of complaint.
- iii. Complaints (C) – Complaints should be raised which are broadly covered in the following scenarios:
 - a. Non-closure of request within promised timeframe (TAT);
 - b. Deficiency in promised action and services provided to the customers in writing;
 - c. Breach of agreed terms and conditions of the loan contract;
 - d. Wrong commitment and non-disclosure of material terms as required under the Fair Practices Code;
 - e. Action and behavior of the company employee and partner resulting in customer dissatisfaction/wrongful financial loss/ and where customers have cited facts of incident.

10. Internal Ombudsman

With reference to the Master Direction - Reserve Bank of India (Internal Ombudsman for Regulated Entities) Directions dated December 29, 2023 (as amended from time to time), Company has appointed an Internal Ombudsman (IO) and the Company refers all complaints to IO which have been partly or wholly rejected. Basis the decision of IO to uphold or overrule the decision of the Company to reject/partly reject the complaint, the reply sent to the customer shall explicitly state the same. In case of complaints that are fully or partly rejected even after examination by the IO, the Company shall advise the complainant accordingly and state as part of the reply that he/she can approach the RBI Ombudsman for redressal.

Based on the findings and validation of complaints handled by the IO, a thorough root cause analysis is conducted on the top categories of complaints to identify any significant gaps and lapses in existing processes. The insights and feedback gathered from this analysis are systematically shared with all relevant teams. This collaborative approach ensures that corrective actions are implemented effectively to enhance our service quality and minimize the recurrence of similar issues in the future.

11. Review of the GRM

The Board of Directors shall review this Policy at least on a yearly basis. In case, there are any regulatory changes requiring modifications to the Policy, the Policy shall be reviewed and amended accordingly.

Any other conditions/ procedure which may not be covered under this Policy shall be read as per the Scale Based Regulation (SBR) Framework and related guidelines / circulars issued by the RBI.
